ARTICLE VI

Indemnification

Section 6.01, Indemnification

(a) The court shall indemnify each man or woman (“indemnity”) who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding (whether common law, criminal, administrative, or investigative) except an action by or in the right of the county government assembly, by reason of the fact that such man or woman, is or was a Union member, board member, or performed by word or deed on behalf of the county government assembly against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement, interest, expenses and other liability actually and reasonable incurred; so long as the indemnity acted in good faith and in a manner which such indemnity reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the county government assembly and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful, and

(b) The county government assembly through the court shall likewise indemnify each indemnity who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the county government assembly within the sphere of The United States of America by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Union member, or is or was serving at the request of the county government assembly as a member, manager, trustor, trustee, beneficiary, employee or agent of other corporations, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, trust or other entity against amounts paid in settlement and expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense and/or settlement of the action or suit; so long as such indemnity acted in good faith and in a manner which such indemnity reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the county government assembly, and

However, no indemnification shall be provided for or on account of any claim, issue or matter with respect to which an indemnity has been adjudged to be liable by a Human Rights Tribunal of subject matter jurisdiction, and

Section 5.02, Absence of Good Faith

The county government assembly shall not be required to indemnify anyone unless such man or woman acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the county government assembly and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, such man or woman had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful, and

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order or settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the man or woman did not act in good faith or in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the county government assembly or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that there was reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful, and

Section 5.03, Successful Defense of Action

The county government assembly shall reimburse or otherwise indemnify any indemnity against legal expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01; to the extent such indemnity is successful on the merits or otherwise, and

Section 5.04, Advancing Expenses

Expenses incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the county government assembly in advance of final disposition, when authorized by the court, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnity for whom such expenses are advanced to repay such advances if indemnification is not ultimately available, and

Section 5.05, Other Rights; Continuing Indemnification

The indemnification provided by these Rules does not exclude any other rights to which an indemnity may be entitled under the Law. The rights of an indemnity shall continue even if the indemnity has ceased to be an assembly member or a Human Rights Defender and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such indemnity, and

Section 5.06, Insurance

The secretary may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any indemnity who is entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Article V, and
